OUTLINES.

The Democratic convention of the Sixth North Carolina Congressional District met in Fayetteville yesterday and up to the 242nd ballot no selection had been made for the nomination between the candidates, Messrs. Patterson, Brown, Godwin and Cook.——William Lee, the negro who assaulted two ladies in Somerset county, Md., was hanged early yesterday morning on a lone island, the place of execution having been kept secret from lynchers; the negro confessed.——In the Hartje divorce trial at Pittsburg yesterday, Wilbert Ashby, colored, testified that his wife lied in her retraction of a statement that she had been paid by Mrs. Hartje to testify in her behalf. ——William J. Bryan writes to the committee of arrangements that the committee should be careful not to accept any money from questionable sources to defray the expense of the reception to Mr. Bryan at Madison Square Garden, N. Y., August 30th. ——Premier Stolypin announces that strong-handed reforms and severe measures will be resorted to in order to maintain order in Russia.——William J. If there's anything unattractive in a peek-a-boo waist we can't see it.

For a prohibition town, Durham is building up a pretty big reputation for crime.

There is no let-up in real estate values in Wilmington. A sure indication of steady and substantial growth.

Isn't Tom Watson's support of Hoke Smith for Governor of Georgia a case of "Save me from my friends?"

After faking the Democratic party to the limit, Marion Butler is now the noblest Republican Roman of them all.

Did life afford any real pleasure to the late Russell Sage except that which comes from the accumulation of money?

Are not many of the accidents and other troubles on railroads directly traceable to the employment of too many cheap men?

And now the esteemed Charlotte Observer is quoting "Deuteronomy 32:15" on the unfortunate Richmond Times-Dispatch. Blessed Tony!

A preacher up in Pennsylvania has forbid the wearing of peek-a-boo waists in his church. Doubtless, he thinks them "more holey than righteous."

How would you like to be the Czar man? Having dissolved the Douma, another doomer has doomed him to assassination. "Uneasy lies the head that wears a crown."

Don't you know "Miss Alice" enjoyed the excitement of that Auto accident? She is too much like her father not to have regarded it rather as an incident than an accident.

The Morning Star is not of those who believe President Roosevelt will accept another nomination for the Presidency. What do Root, Taft, Shaw, Cannon, Fairbanks and Beveridge think of it?

An esteemed Georgia contemporary says: "If you are an alienist in need of a job go to New York; if a handwriting expert, go to Pittsburg." And, the Star will add: If you are a muckraker in need of a job go to Georgia.

The sale of Panama 2 per cent. bonds as high as 104 is proof positive that this country is prosperous and its credit gilt-edged. There is no basis for the rumor that a syndicate of editors gobbled up the entire issue of $30,000,000.

Grand Jury in Superior Court Finds True Bill Against Two Negroes.

CHARGED WITH BURCLARY.

Men to Be Tried For Their Lives Are Ed. Readis and Caesar Bullock—Cases Tried by Court Yesterday.

The principal feature at yesterday's session of the Superior Court of New Hanover county was the returning of a true bill by the Grand Jury against Ed. Readis and Caesar Bullock, both colored, charged with burglary. The crime for which these two negroes will be tried for their lives was committed on the night of April 10th, when they broke into the residence of Mr. Calvin Gore, at Ninth and Orange streets. Mr. Gore's residence is in the same building with his store and the negroes claimed that their intention was to enter and rob the store. In order to get into the store, however, the burglars broke into the residence and thus probably made a capital crime of it. Mr. Gore's family had retired on the second floor of the residence, which adjoins and connects with the store, which occupies the lower floor at the northwest corner of Ninth and Orange streets. About 11 o'clock on the night of the burglary, Mrs. Gore heard a noise down stairs and awakened her husband. Mr. Gore had no idea of burglars, but to satisfy his wife he armed himself with a club and taking a dark lantern crept down stairs. After going down a few steps he leaned over the rail and discovered a man trying to fit a key into the lock of the door which leads from his residence to the store. The negro, hearing Mr. Gore, jumped across the hall, but not before Mr. Gore had thrown a flood of light upon him from his dark lantern and recognized him as Ed. Readis. Readis was arrested a few days afterward and implicated Caesar Bullock. A. J. Marshall, Esq., will appear for Bullock and Messrs. Herbert McClammy and Wm. J. Bellamy for Readis. The defence will endeavor to have the trial postponed to some later term of court, as they claim that some of their main witnesses are out of town.

The Shockley homicide case will hardly be reached before Monday, as His Honor Judge Jones wishes to clear up all the jail cases before proceeding with this case.

Congressional Convention at Fayetteville Brings on Lively Contest Among Candidates for Honors in the Sixth District.

N. A. M'LEAN PERMANENT CHAIRMAN

ALL COUNTIES WELL REPRESENTED BY GOOD DELEGATIONS ENTHUSIASTIC FOR "THEIR MAN"—CORDIAL WELCOME BY CAPT. JAMES D. McNEILL—THE BALLOTS AS CAST.

Fayetteville, N. C., July 27.—Already having surpassed, by nearly twenty, the number of ballots cast in the Bellamy convention here four years ago, the Sixth Congressional District Democrats appear almost as far from the nomination of a Congressman as they were when the first ballot was taken this afternoon. Three hundred and twenty ballots have been cast and the result is not materially changed. Brown, on the 318th ballot, was leading with 70, Patterson next with 47, Godwin third with 43, and Cook fourth with 38. At 2:30 this (Friday) morning the convention reassembled after 30 minute recess, taken to allow Cumberland to settle some internal differences in its delegation, Cross Creek No. 1 being exceedingly hard to keep in line for Cook, after the large number of ballots cast and the seeming deadlock. Until this dissension arose, the convention was a very tame affair indeed, the rivalry between candidates being spirited but friendly.

LATEST BALLOTS.

Fayetteville, N. C., July 27.—The convention re-assembled at 3:50 amid scenes of wildest cheering by rival delegations. A corps of university students gave one of their college yells adapted to Patterson. The 320th ballot was called. Bladen was passed over by request. The vote resulted: Brown 73; Cook, 34; Godwin, 43; Patterson, 48. Cook's votes in Bladen having gone to Candidate Brown on the 321st ballot, Cumberland broke from Cook giving Patterson, 25 1-2; Godwin, 27; Cook, five-tenths and Brown, 53. The delegation was very turbulent. Sheriff McLeod, of Robeson, and Deputy Sheriff Monaghan using their kindly offices to seat the delegation. J. K. Nimocks protested on the ground that the caucus had promised to give 26 1-2 votes to Cook as long as there was any chance for his nomination. His remarks were greeted with "That's not so" and several shook their fingers at Mr. Nimocks in a threatening maner. The chairman ordered the sergeant-at-arms to seat the delegation and get more force if necessary to preserve order. The Cumberland delegation overflowed the aisles and surged to and fro in heated controversy, the chairman and sergeant-at-arms pleading in vain for order. It was the exciting period of the convention. The lights were even turned out in an effort to restore quiet but this too was unsuccessful. Mr. D. B. Bruce, of Cumberland, at length gained the floor and explained the minutiae of the caucus. Maj. McKeithan also spoke of the caucus and said he had cast the vote as it was given to him in the convention hall after the caucus. Col. Short made the point that the convention should not take up the internal affairs of a delegation. Mr. C. J. Cooper withdrew the name of Mr. Cook in the interest of harmony. The roll call was resumed, the total being: Brown, 78.3; Cook, 1-2; Godwin, 45.7; Patterson, 73.5. Bellamy, of Brunswick asked and was given 30 minutes for consultation.

CONVENTION IN DETAIL.

Fayetteville, N. C., July 26.—The convention of the Sixth Congressional District of North Carolina assembled here to-day at 2:25 P. M., to nominate a candidate for the National House of Representatives. Soon after meeting, the convention took a recess for one hour to allow committee meetings.

SEABOARD WRECK LAST SUNDAY.

State Corporation Puts Responsibility on Operators at Hamlet and Rockingham—Raleigh Homicide.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 26.—The State Corporation Commission issued a statement this evening to the effect that their investigation into causes of the wreck on the Seaboard Air Line near Rockingham, July 22nd, developed the fact that the collision was caused by the failure of agents of the railroad company to obey the rules of the company governing the movement of trains. The report states that it would serve no purpose for the Commission to find which agent is guilty of negligence as such finding would not be binding or conclusive on any one and might be prejudicial in other investigations. The report states that the commission is satisfied that the collision would not have occurred had the block system been in operation on that portion of the road where the collision occurred. The Commission says:

"The operator at Rockingham and the operator at Hamlet, only six miles apart, allowed trains to leave these places at practically the same time, meeting each other, and neither knew that this had been done until the trains were beyond their control. This could not have happened under the block system."

In conclusion the Commission say it has no power to order the block system and signals to be used between Hamlet and Monroe but they do most earnestly recommend that the Seaboard Air Line install that system as soon as possible.

READING MATTER FOR CONVICTS.

Hundred Men Will Be Engaged on Coast Line's New Yards Next Week —No Bibles.

At present there are fifty State convicts at work on the Atlantic Coast Line's new yards on Smith's Creek and fifty more will be here to be put to work next week. This will make a force of 100 convicts besides others engaged in the extensive improvements of the Coast Line's Wilmington terminal. Good progress is being made in double tracking the road from Wilmington to Wrightsboro about four miles out of town, on the Wilmington & Weldon Division. Last week the force was at work near Wrightsboro but this week work is being done near the "Y" in the city environs.

The convict camp is located just beyond the County Home, and last Sunday, the Rev. A. J. Parker, of Bladen Street M. E. church, South, went out and preached to the men. There are 50 negroes in the gang and Mr. Parker found that there were only five Bibles or Testaments in the crowd. He asked all who could read to hold up their hands. Thirty men held up their hands, which showed a remarkable proportion who could read.

Mr. Parker says he could find no magazines or newspapers in the camp, or reading matter of any kind that would improve the men or benefit their condition. He has taken it upon himself to supply them some Bibles or other good reading matter and if people of the city have anything on that line to contribute he will be glad to receive such as they can send to him. Bibles, books or papers can be sent to him at the parsonage, 815 North Fifth street, or to B. C. Moore's drugstore 715 North Fourth street. He expects to preach to the convicts next Sunday afternoon, so the books should be sent by to-morow afternoon.

LOOKING BACKWARD

Merchants Who Did Business in Wilmington Thirty-two Years Ago.

NOTABLE CHANGES OF TIME

Few Firms Now Recognized in Business Circles and Only "Oldest Inhabitant" Recollects Them. Death Has Claimed Many.

Nothing is more interesting to the older citizens of a town than to go back reflectively to their younger days and note the changes that have taken place by comparison with the present. This is specially true as to their old-time friends and acquaintances.

Referring to a copy of The Morning Star printed in July, 1871, thirty-five years ago, we find the following among the local advertisers:

Munson & Co., clothiers; Dudley & Ellis, boots and shoes; W. R. French, retail groceries; J. F. Rueckert, music teacher; P. Heinsberger, books and stationery; R. K. Meade, school for boys; Thomas Graeme, insurance; Charles D. Myers & Co., groceries; David Pigott, tobacconist; T. C. Servoss, city clerk and treasurer; F. W. Kerchner, wholesale groceries; D. M. Buie, chemist, fertilizer; Green & Flanner, druggists; James & Meares, Josh T. James, auctioneer; Edwards & Hall, wholesale groceries; W. M. Stevenson, house furnishing and crockery; Thos. H. Wright, hats; Willard Bros., wholesale grocers, etc.; R. P. Paddison, Cape Fear and Black Rivers steamers; S. Levy, dry goods; Adrian & Vollers, wholesale groceries and liquors; Carraway & Cleaper, barbers; McKerall & Stedman, editors Marion, S. C., Star; Nathaniel Jacobi, hardware; Wm. J. Bivins, register of deeds; J. C. Stevenson, groceries; D. A. Smith, furniture; O. G. Parsley & Co., cotton gins, fertilizers, etc.; Robt. B. Wood, builder and contractor; H. Burkhimer, tobacco and cigars; J. H. McGarity, co-operative groceries; Sam'l. N. Cannon, country produce; J. K. McIlhenny, druggist; Bass, Scott & Co., commission merchants; A. H. Clifford, Clifford House; Cronly & Morris, auctioneers; J. W. Schenck, sheriff, call for taxes; Williams & Murchison, wholesale groceries, etc.; S. L. Fremont, chief engineer and superintendent; John C. Winder, general superintendent; Steamship Pioneer for Philadelphia, Worth & Worth, agents; James Dawson, house for rent; H. B. Eller, houses for rent; Geo. R. French & Son, houses for rent.

Go over this list carefully, all ye of the old times in Wilmington, and see how few of those named are now with us.

At a meeting of the County Executive Committee of New Hanover, before Pender county had been erected, with J. A. Engelhard, chairman, and S. A. Ashe, secretary, Dr. W. W. Harriss, Jno. D. Love, Wm. H. Bernard, Dr. J. B. Seavey and John D. Powers were appointed on the finance committee. All save one have "passed over the river."

At the same meeting the following speakers were appointed to canvass the county for the Democratic (then called "Conservative") party: S. A. Ashe, W. S. Devane, Jno. J. Fowler, Luke McClammy, Daniel Shaw, W. T. Ennett, C. W. McClammy, Jno. L. Holmes, R. H. Cowan, J. A. Engelhard, Chas. M. Stedman. Of these only Ashe, Fowler, Luke McClammy and Stedman survive.

In August and September, 1871, the leading features of The Star were the outrages committed by the Lowrie band in Robeson county and the prevalence of yellow fever in Charleston. The paper showed great enterprise in getting at the truth concerning the status of affairs in Charleston, which was rendered difficult by the unwillingness of the Charleston authorities to admit the existence of the fever there. But the truth at last came out and heroic measures were adopted in Wilmington to prevent its introduction here. A rigid quarantine and thorough sanitation were enforced and the scare was soon over.

TO STAND ON ROOSEVELT'S RECORD.

So the Republican Congressional campaign is to be run on Roosevelt's record as the issue to pull the G. O. P. through. The Baltimore Sun discusses it thus:

"The 'President's record,' it is stated, is to be the trump card of his party in the Congressional campaign this Fall. The managers met at Oyster Bay on Monday, talked over the situation, declared the outlook was as bright as could be with the 'record,' and declared their serene confidence in the result of the November election. Somebody asked Speaker Cannon whether tariff reform would be a part of the Republican programme. The Speaker drew himself up to his full height asd refused to be interviewed. But on the 'President's record' there is no division of sentiment. This is the magical issue which is to pull the party through next November. If the 'record' of Mr. Roosevelt is so potent an issue, so great an element of strength to his party, in 1906, what may it not prove in 1908? We all know that Secretary Loeb says the President will not, under any circumstances, accept a nomination in 1908. Mr. Roosevelt solemnly asserted that he would not be a candidate for re-election on the night of his election in 1904. But suppose the 'President's record' is absolutely essential to the success of his party in 1908. What then? It is impossible to separate the 'record' from the man who made it. A 'record' cannot run for President, but the man with the record may if the party insists upon it. It will be well for aspirants to the Presidency to keep their eyes on the 'record' for the next two years. It will be an important factor in the next Republican national convention."

Roosevelt didn't do any more than a President ought have done, didn't do all that a President could have done, did a good many things that a President should not have done, and left undone some things that a President should have done. There are issues outside of the best of Roosevelt's record, and on them Roosevelt's record is the wrong way. One of these issues is the tariff by which the Republican party holds up the Trusts as with its right hand while it tries to "bust" the trusts with its left hand.

DEATH IN WRECKS.

The fatal accidents on railways in this country are simply appalling. In the course of a year the victims killed and maimed in collisions and wrecks from various causes constitute a list that is heart-rending to contemplate.

A bulletin issued at Washington on Tuesday by the Inter-State Commerce Commission, covering the period of three months up to March 31st, shows that the total number of casualties on railroads in January, February and March, including passengers and employes, was 18,296. Of that terrible list 1,126 were killed and 17,170 were injured. The number of employes killed in coupling and uncoupling cars and engines was eighty-four, being one less than the number killed in the last quarter.

The total number of collisions and derailments was 3,409 (1,921 collisions and 1,569 derailments), of which 289 collisions and 167 derailments affected passenger trains. The damage to cars, engines, and roadway by these accidents amounted to $2,292,785. There is a decrease of 232 in the number of collisions and derailments over those reported in the preceding three months.

The above list does not, of course, include the big death list in the collision on the Seaboard Air Line at Hamlet, N. C., and as many more in two or three accidents elsewhere in the United States during July alone.

The Inter-State Commerce Commission's bulletin suggests that the block system, repeatedly advocated by the commission, "is the true means that ought to be adopted for the prevention of such distressing accidents" as the one recounted.

The bulletin says: "The most disastrous accident reported, a collision causing thirty-four deaths and injuring twenty-four, was due to the striking failure of the train-dispatching system. A telegraph operator at a small and lonely station, who had been on duty all day and more than half the night, fell asleep, and on awakening informed the train dispatcher as to what occurred while he was asleep."

It should be remarked in this connection that "suggestions" and "recommendations" amount to nothing. Rigid laws that shall be enforced is the only remedy, and, of course, that will only partially remedy the conditions.

JUSTICE WILL BE SATISFIED.

The Salisbury Post of Tuesday says in an editorial, and it is to be hoped it reflects the sentiment of its community:

"Solicitor Hammer and associates have left no stone unturned to bring to justice those who are believed to have brutally murdered Isaac Lyerly and three other members of his family. Every effort has been put forth to fasten their crime upon the guilty parties and that the strictest demand of justice will be satisfied when the special term of court is convened in Salisbury on August 10th is not to be doubted.

"How much better this orderly course than retribution by mob law. It is not difficult to understand the temper of the relatives and neighbors of the murdered family nor is it any wonder that every soul in the county was shocked and enraged at the atrocity of the crime. But nothing truer than 'lawlessness begets lawlessness' was ever spoken and the certain consequence of encouragement of the mob spirit is the displacement of justice and the enthronement of physical force.

"Those immediately interested have had time to reflect, and be it said to their credit they have not as much as intimated violence.

"The prisoners will be brought to Salisbury for trial, they will be protected and we feel safe in saying that they will be as secure from harm here as anywhere in North Carolina. This is all to the credit of the citizens of Rowan county and an earnest of their respect for law and order."

Let the people once be sure that the officers of the law will more promptly to trace crime and apprehend criminals, and know that the courts will bring them to justice without delay, and we will hear less of the lynching spirit. The people must have confidence in their law officers and courts and then they will have more respect for the laws of their State.

There might be a few people in a community who may seek vengeance upon the doers of horrible deeds, but with the laws properly enforced there will always be enough law and order men to prevent citizens themselves from becoming murderers and criminals in order to wreak vengeance on a culprit.

Considering the shocking crime and the deep sense of outrage felt in Rowan county over the murder of the four members of the Lyerly family, it will be greatly to the credit of the people of Salisbury and that county if they will permit the majesty of the law to be vindicated by an impartial trial and execution of the guilty according to the law of their State. The law of the State is simply the law of the people themselves who constitute the State. People should not fail to remember that when they violate a law it is the law of their own making, as they are themselves the foundation of civilization and society in a republican form of government. If men will stop to think they will do no act to overthrow their own law, undermine civilization and society and place their county and State in the class of the barbarous natives. That is what they do when they take vengeance and lynch contrary to established law.

—The News and Observer says that by reason of the legalized primary in Raleigh Saturday no voter was badgered at the polls. The Australian plan was incorporated in the Raleigh primary law and worked there, as it does elsewhere, to the advantage and peace of mind of the voter. Some objectionable features are to be found in the legalized primary as adopted by most of the North Carolina towns that have tried it, but in the main it works well.—Salisbury Post.

—Suppose seventy-five years ago somebody had predicted that in the year 1906 bonds of the United States of America would command high premiums in every market of the world, while those of Russia would be far below par? Would anybody have believed it? Russia seemed to be the most stable government in the world because it was an autocracy, supported by a vast army and a great navy, with resources apparently unlimited and an ignorant and helpless population, apparently fit only to produce and to obey. The statesmen of the world looked askance at this republic as an experiment and most of them predicted that it would fall to pieces. Yet, Russia to-day is shaken to its foundations and the United States is not only the richest government on earth but its credit is the highest because it is universally accepted as the most solid of all governments—one composed of the people themselves. The despotism and the republic stand in vivid contrast for the instruction of the human race.—Richmond News-Leader.

—A wreck on the Western North Carolina Railroad, two miles out of Salisbury, last Saturday evening, hung up a train load of passengers from the west until the next morning. The darkness and weather conditions were such as to forbid their walking in. A train made up and ready to start west stood at the station all night and could easily have been run out to bring in the passengers on the blocked train, but this was not done, and there was and is much just and natural indignation among them. Such disregard of the comfort and welfare of their patrons is one of the reasons why some people do not love the railroads. There should be some redress for this sort of thing.—Charlotte Observer.

TWINKLINGS.

—Belle—Bertha is getting to be quite famous. Blanche—Oh, well! Bertha's idea of fame is to ride around in a hansom and have people say, "That's her!"—American Spectator.

—Nell—I've got a new way to tell a person's age. Belle—Is that so? Will you tell anyone's age? Nell—Yes. Belle—Tell me yours, then.—The Catholic Standard and Times.

—Miranda—I don't care if he does own an auto and a steam yacht, I won't marry him! Why, he's a regular flat. Mrs. Matchmaker—Yes, dear; but flats with all modern improvements are very desirable.—Life.

—"O!" exclaimed the minister; "fishing on the Sabbath! What will your father say?" "Can't tell you," replied the bad boy. "If I don't catch nothin' I'll catch it; if I do, I won't."—Catholic Standard and Times.

—"I wish," murmured Mr. Grumps, reflectively, "I wish my wife had played on the piano for me when I was courting her." "She plays now, does she not?" asked Mr. Chumps. "Yes—oh, yes. But if she'd done it then, I'd still be a bachelor!"—Cleveland Leader.

—"That's a very good-natured crowd at the ball game, isn't it, George?" "I guess it is, my dear—when the umpiring suits them. But why do you think it's good natured?" "I noticed that whenever I asked any questions about the game everybody laughed."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

—"Do what you please with me, judge," pleaded the convicted man, "but don't send my wife to prison, too. Let her go free." "Silence!" cried the judge sternly. "You go to the penitentiary and she to the House of Correction." "Oh, that's all right. I was afraid you was goin' to put us in the same cell."—Philadelphia Press.

J. E. STROUPE PASSES AWAY

Unexpected Death of Young Man Highly Esteemed in City—Was Mate of Steamer Wilmington.

The numerous friends of Mr. John Edward Stroupe heard with inexpressible sadness of his death yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of his brother-in-law, Captain John W. Harper, of the steamer Wilmington, on South Front street. Mr. Stroupe's death was rather unexpected, although he has been afflicted for about three years with consumption. Recently the dreadful malady had seriously taxed his vitality, and on Tuesday he went to Carolina Beach with the hope that the salt air would benefit him. Wednesday night, finding his strength failing him, he returned to the city on the steamer Seagate early yesterday morning. From the steamer he was taken to Captain Harper's home, where a few hours later his young life went out, greatly to the grief and surprise of his relatives who were unprepared for so sudden a temination of his life.

Mr. Stroupe was born at Winston-Salem, N. C., October 31, 1879, and was in the 27th year of his age. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Stroupe, of Winston-Salem, and is survived by his parents and three sisters (Mrs. T. A. McKelvie, of Hagerstown, Md.; Mrs. John W. Harper, of Wilmington; Mrs. E. F. Upchurch, of Cary, N. C.) and two brothers (Messrs. H. A. and W. W. Stroupe, of Lynchburg, Va.). The remains were sent last evening at 6:50 o'clock to Wilmington-Salem, the home of his parents, and the funeral will take place there this afternoon. The interment will be made in the Moravian cemetery. His sister, Mrs. Harper, accompanied the remains to the old home.

Mr. Stroupe came to Wilmington several years ago, and for five years has been mate on the steamer Wilmington, of which his brother-in-law, Captain Harper, is master. By his affable and courteous demeanor toward the hundreds of patrons of the steamer he made himself universally popular, and the news of his untimely death will be learned with deep regret wherever he is known. He leaves in Wilmington many friends who will hold him in tender remembrance.

Hanover Lodge's Birthday Party.

To-day the steamer Wilmington will be dressed in her gayest flags, the occasion being an excursion to Carolina Beach under the auspices of Hanover Lodge No. 145, I. O. O. F. The steamer will make four trips, leaving her wharf at 9:15 A. M., 2:45, 5:15 and 7:45 P. M., with a late boat at night arriving in the city at 11:30 o'clock. The excursion will celebrate the annual birthday party of Hanover Lodge, and those who attend will have an excellent opportunity to spend a day of enjoyment, in either dancing, bathing, trap-shooting or bowling.

The Childcen's Home.

The matter of a Childrens' Home is receiving much careful thought and is growing in general interest. The central committee is considering the advisability of the appointment of subcommittees to canvass the city in the interest of this much needed charity. Contributions can be sent to any member of the committee. The Stokely Place on Wrightsvile Sound has been selected as the location and an option has been secured which will expire in a very short time, hence it is necessary for the charitably disposed to come forward with their contributions as early as possible.

Death of Little Girl.

A sad event was the death of Mary Hasel, the bright little eighteen-month old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Haney, which occurred at the residence, corner Second and Meares streets, last night at 8 o'clock. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 4:30 P. M., from the residence.

SIXTH DISTRICT DEMOCRATS IN CONVENTION ASSEMBLED.

It was 2:25 o'clock when Chairman Geo. L. Morton, of the District Executive Committee, called the convention to order and presented Rev. Watson Fairley, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, who offered prayer, asking Divine blessing upon the deliberations of the body.

The convention hall was well filled with delegates while not a few spectators were in the gallery. It was remarked upon as the most largely attended convention in the history of politics in the District since the war.

Col. Martin presented Capt. Jas. D. McNeill, who in behalf of the city, gave a very cordial greeting to the convention. Capt. McNeill's speech was characteristic and was received with the warmest applause. The response was by Col. Geo. L. Morton.

Mr. J. McD. Monaghan was appointed sergeant-at-arms and authorized to appoint his assistants. Chairman Morton then declared the convention in order.

Bladen—F. D. McLean, credentials; Dr. L. B. Evans, Permanent organization; B. A. Downing, platform.

Brunswick—Geo. L. Peschau, credentials; Dr. T. V. Moore, permanent organization; Geo. H. Bellamy, platform.

Columbus—H. L. Lyon, credentials; R. E. L. Brown, permanent organization; A. S. Richardson, platform.

Cumberland—N. A. Sinclair, platform; S. J. Cooper, organization; J. H. Currie, credentials.

Harnett—H. T. Spiers, credentials; J. C. Clifford, organization; N. A. Stewart, platform.

New Hanover—Credentials, J. A. Taylor; organization, Wm. Gilchrist; platform, J. H. Cowan.

Robeson—Credentials, A. L. Bullock; organization, H. J. McKinnon; platform, J. S. Oliver.

Hon. J. G. Shaw, of Cumberland, offered a resolution declaring the adoption of a unit rule not consistent with Democracy and unfair. Mr. Shaw asked for its immediate passage. The resolution was received with cheers. Mr. Shaw spoke to his resolution strongly, urging the principles embodied in his resolution. He strongly inveighed against gag rule in any form.

Col. H. B. Short, of Columbus, made the point that the resolution was out of order until an organization was effected. The point was sustained by the chairman and the resolution was ordered to lay on the table.

A recess was taken at 2:45 o'clock for one hour.

The various delegations reported their chairman as follows:

Cumberland—A. A. McKeithan.
Columbus—H. B. Short.
Harnett—R. G. Taylor.
Robeson—R. S. Bond.
New Hanover—Wm. E. Springer.
Bladen—E. F. McCulloch.
Brunswick—Geo. H. Bellamy.

Bladen and Columbus fared best in the assignment of places in the convention, occupying seats near the front. New Hanover and Robeson are first in the rear with Cumberland, Brunswick and Harnett in the rear.

New Hanover is represented by a full delegation and a number of alternates, possibly four of the latter taking the place of regular delegates. In caucus at the Hotel LaFayette at 1:30 o'clock, it was decided to vote 23 for Brown, two for Godwin and one for Patterson. Cameron F. MacRae enjoys the distinction of being the only Patterson man on the delegation, and Capt. John Bary and Fred Griffith are the Godwin men. It was voted unanimously to recommend Mr. Wm. E. Springer for the Congressional Executive Committee.

Brunswick is represented by 13 delegates, a majority of the number having come up on this morning's A. & Y. train with additional delegates from New Hanover and Bladen.

The Adjourned Session.

The convention met again at 3:45 and was called to order by Chairman Morton, who asked for committee reports.

The Committee on Credentials reported through Chairman J. H. Currie, of Cumberland, there were no contest. By a manipulation of figures Cumberland endeavored to secure an additional vote in the convention but this was not allowed.

The Platform Committee made report through N. A. Sinclair, of Cumberland, chairman, as follows:

"1. That we endorse and re-affirm the principles declared in the last National and State platforms of the Democratic party.

2. That this convention be governed by the rules in force in the present House of Representatives of North Carolina."

The report was adopted upon motion of W. D. Gaster, of Cumberland.

The Committee on Organization reported through Chairman C. J. Cooper, of Cumberland, recommending Col. N. A. McLean for permanent chairman, and Mr. Chas. G. Rose, of Cumberland, as secretary. The report was adopted unanimously.

Messrs. A. A. McKeithan, of Cumberland, of Bladen, escorted Col. McLean to the chair amid the wildest cheering. Col. McLean in taking the chair expressed profound gratefulness for the mark of confidence expressed by the convention in his election. He said that he would know no fear or favors in the discharge of his duties.

Col. George L. Morton, upon motion of Mr. Joe B. Underwood was voted an honorary seat in the convention.

The resolution against a unit rule as offered by Hon. J. G. Shaw was brought up as follows:

"Resolved: That the enforcement of the unit rule by majorities to coerce minorities is detrimental to Democracy, dishonest in principle and will not be tolerated in this convention."

Mr. Peschau asked if the resolution affected counties which had instructed. The chair ruled that it would not. The resolution was unanimously carried.

Nominations were declared in order upon motion of C. J. Cooper, of Cumberland. The chair ruled that any fraction over 99 votes would nominate.

Upon the calling of counties Brunswick yielded to Harnett. Upon the call of Bladen, Dr. L. B. Evans, of Clarkton, in an eloquent speech nominated Hon. Joseph Addison Brown, of Columbus, paying him a fine tribute. D. L. McBryde, of Cumberland, nominated Hon. H. L. Cook, of Cumberland. The name of Bryan in connection with the nomination of Mr. Cook was mildly cheered. Hon. Dan Hugh McLean, of Harnett, placed in nomination Hon. Hannibal L. Godwin. Mr. McLean made one of the best of the nominating speeches, breezy, bubbling with humor and full of patriotism. His reference to the Confederate soldier and their sons was touching and brought forth renewed applause. He paid a fine tribute to Mr. Godwin and his services to the Democratic party. Mr. McLean was highly eulogistic of Wm. J. Bryan, whom he characterized as the "grandest and greatest men of American history." It was a quarter to five o'clock when the speech of Mr. McLean was concluded. Col. N. A. McLean called Hon. J. G. Shaw to the chair and nominated Hon. Gilbert B. Patterson. Col. McLean was given a perfect ovation.

Col. McLean urged as a reason for Mr. Patterson nomination, aside from his high character and service to the party, that he "Knew the ropes" and more "Knew how to pull them." Seconding speeches were made by Homer L. Lyon, Esq., of Columbus, for Brown; W. D. Gaster, of Cumberland, for H. L. Cook; Geo. H. Bellamy, of Brunswick, for Godwin; A. J. McKinnon, for Robeson, for Patterson; W. A. Stewart, of Harnett, for Godwin. The speeches were concluded at five thirty and the first ballot was called and resulted as follows:

Ballot No. 1.—Bladen, Brown, 9 1-2; Cook, 4 1-2; Godwin, 2; Patterson, 4; Brunswick, Godwin, 13; Columbus, Brown, 32; Cumberland, Cook, 34; Harnet, Godwin, 24; New Hanover, Brown, 14; Cook, 3; Godwin, 8; Patterson, 1; Robeson, Brown, 4; Godwin, 2; Patterson, 43. Total—Brown, 59 1-2; Cook, 41 1-2; Godwin, 49; Patterson, 48.

On the second ballot New Hanover took one from Cook for Brown.

Third Ballot.

On the third baloit Robeson took two from Godwin for Brown.

Sixth Ballot—Brown, 58 1-2; Cook, 38 1-2; Godwin, 47; Patterson, 53.

On the fourth ballot New Hanover gave two more for Brown, Robeson gave Patterson, 44; Brown, 5.

The only change on the fifth was 43 for Patterson from Robeson, and six for Brown. Robeson asked for time on the sixth ballot and gave 48 for Patterson, one for Brown.

On the seventh Robeson again flirted with Columbus giving Patterson, 44, and Brown five.

On the eighth New Hanover gave 18 for Brown, one to Cook, six to Godwin and one to Patterson, the only change.

No change on the ninth.

The tenth ballot was as follows: Bladen—Brown 10; Cook, 4; Godwin, 2; Patterson, 4. Brunswick—Godwin, 13. Columbus—Brown, 32. Cumberland—Cook, 34. Harnett—Godwin, 24. New Hanover—Brown, 18; Cook, 1; Godwin, 6; Patterson 1. Robeson—Brown, 6; Patterson, 43.

Only change in eleventh Robeson gave 44 to Patterson, 2 to Godwin and 3 to Brown.

No change on 12th.

Col. E. F. McRae moved a recess for supper. There was a howl of protests and the motion was withdrawn.

On the 13th Robeson gave Brown, 5; Patterson, 44.

No change fourteenth.

No change until 18th, when New Hanover gave Brown one more and Bladen one to Patterson. McCullock, of Bladen, moved to adjourn until 8 o'clock. The motion was unanimously carried.

On the 75th ballot Robeson took two from Patterson and gave them to Brown, giving the latter a total of 69 votes, but this was lost on the next ballot. Ed. Smith, of Harnett, moved that the convention adjourn for 30 minutes for the county delegations to caucus. E. G. Davis objected to R. G. Taylor, as chairman of the delegation. The motion was almost unanimously defeated at 9:45 the 102nd ballot had been taken with no material change.

There was no change in the ballots until 9 o'clock when on the 69th Robeson gave for Patterson and six to Brown, giving the Columbus man, 57 1-2, the highest vote reached by any candidate during the convention.

Night Session.

The convention was called to order at 8 o'clock. The delegates were slow in assembling and were mainly in negligee attire, the weather being oppressively warm. The 70th ballot was called and resulted as follows: Ballot No. 70, Bladen—Brown, 10; Cook, 3 1-2; Godwin, 1 1-2; Patterson, 5. Brunswick—Godwin, 13. Columbus—Brown, 32. Cumberland—Cook, 34. Harnett—Godwin, 24. New Hanover—Brown, 19; Godwin, 6; Patterson, 1. Robeson—Brown, 5; Patterson, 44. Totals—Brown, 66; Cook, 37 1-2; Godwin, 44 1-2; Patterson, 50.

On the 104th ballot Robeson gave Patterson, 42; Brown, 6; Godwin, 1. Godwin gained another half from Bladen on the next ballot but lost the gain in Robeson.

The 105th ballot was taken at 10:30 o'clock with no change on result, several delegations awaiting evidently a break on other delegations before changing their votes.

At 11 o'clock the 200th ballot had been taken with absolutely no change. Brown, 67; Cook, 38, Godwin, 45; Patterson, 48.

At the end of the 209th ballot Geo. H. Bellamy moved adjournment for half an hour for consultation. The motion carried.

The convention re-assembled at 11.55 P. M., when the 209th baloit was called, but the Cumberland delegation had reported. On the 209th ballot New Hanover gave 20 for Brown, four for Godwin and two for Patterson. Robeson gave Brown, 7 and Patterson, 42.

Some turbulency was manifested among the Cumberland delegation on the 225th ballot, and an early break was predicted.

E. G. Blue, of 71st Township, Cumberland county, challenged the vote of Cumberland and there was much confusion. Maj. McKeithan cast the vote of Cumberland solidly for Cook despite the protest. J. H. Anderson held that caucus had agreed to vote for Cook as long as there was a chance.

On the 242nd ballot New Hanover changed her vote to 20 for Brown, five for Godwin and one for Patterson. No other changes.

Total on 250th ballot, Brown, 69; Cook, 38; Godwin, 43; Patterson, 48.

Three hundredth ballot—Brown, 70; Cook, 38; Godwin, 43; Patterson, 47. Robeson having changed another of her votes to Brown.

At 1:50 A. M. at the end of the 318th ballot Geo. H. Bellamy moved that the convention take a ecess until 9:30 A. M. The motion was defeated. Cumberland moved a reces for 30 minutes. This was also defeated. No change in vote.

Mr. Joe B. Underwood challenged the solid vote of Cumberland for Cook. J. H. Anderson asked a recess of 30 minutes for consultation. So did Maj. A. A. McKethan, Chairman of the delegation, A. J. McKinnon asked that the chairman rule on the question of allowing a minority representation to vote as they choose on the delegation the motionn was carried.

Fayetteville, N. C. July 26.—At 3:05 Robeson asked thirty minutes for consultation and the delegation is now out for this purpose. It is reported that as a result of the conference of the Cumberland delegates that county will give 5 1-2 to Brown when the convention reconvened at 3:30.

Fayetteville, N. C., July 27.—At 3:05 Cumberland delegation was not in the hall upon the reassembling of the convention and a further wait of some minutes ensued, a messenger having dispatched for the delegation at the LaFayette Hotel. The 319th vote was called and J. H. Anderson, of Cumberland, asked further time. Fifteen minutes further time was allowed. The 319th vote resulted in Robeson's casting two more of her votes for Patterson and one for Goodwin, making the total Brown 71, Cook 38, Goodwin 44 and Patterson 45. A nomination is hadly expected for two hours or more yet.

WAR CAPTAINS OF THE W. L. I.

There Were Three of Them During the Civil War and One During Spanish War.

The departure of the Wilmington Light Infantry on Wednesday afternoon for the Summer encampment at Morehead City, brings up reminiscences of the gallant company in civil war times. Col. John L. Cantwell, a veteran of the Mexican war, and of the Civil War, and also a captain of the Wilmington Light Infantry, reminds The Star that the company was organized in 1853 and has had a continuous existence to date, never failing to answer the call of its country whenever there was a cal to arms.

Much of the history of the old company is known to Star readers, but Col. Cantwell recalled yesterday that it had three war captains during the war between the States. The first of these commanders was Col. Wm. L. ReRosset, the only survivor of the three, and now an honored resident of Wilmington. The other two were the late Captain Henry Savage and the late Captain John J. Poisson, both of whom were among Wilmington's most prominent and honored citizens.

Col. DeRosset, the first war captain, led the company to Fort Caswell early in 1861 when the Governor ordered the State troops there to take it out of the hands of the Federal authorities in charge. Subsequently the company was sent to Fort Fisher and Col. DeRosset's captaincy was ended there when he was made major of the Third North Carolina Regiment, on the 16th of May 1861. Captain Savage succeeded to the command and went with the company to Virginia where he gallantly led it in the Battle of Frazer's Farm where Gen. L. O'B. Branch, of North Carolina, sacrificed his life for the Southern cause. From Virginia, Captain Savage returned to Wilmington to become collector of the port for the Confederate government, and was succeeded as commander of the company by Captain John J. Poisson. Captain Poisson bravely led the Wilmington company through the Virginia campaigns for three years and it was surrendered with Gen. Lee's army at Appomattox.

It must be borne in mind that the company during its Civil War career was not composed of the brave men who went with Captain DeRosset to Fort Caswell. This is mentioned to recall the remarkable fact that those men who went as privates to Fort Caswell, with no exception that can be recalled, became commissioned officers during the four years struggle that illumines the pages of history as the most momentous war the world has ever had.

It should be mentioned that the old company had another war captain in 1898 when the United States declared war with Spain. The war captain in that war was Captain Don MacRae, who, though having large interests at home, put his company on a war footing and stood for Uncle Sam.

RED MEN'S EXCURSION.

Splendid Day and Rare Enjoyment at Carolina Beach.

Carolina Beach was the "Mecca" yesterday of all loyal Red Men in this section, and right royally did they and their friends enjoy a perfect day.

The event was the annual excursion on the steamer Wilmington, and an extraordinarily large crowd took advantage of the opportunity.

There were three boats and a late trip at night, and throughout the entire day good order prevailed. Among the various features of amusement was the ancient war dance, portrayed by stalwart braves in all the glamor and tinsel of Indian warfare. The exciting chase and capture of a paleface in the forest, duly scalped (?) and apparently burned at the stake was realistic and entertaining and added much to the pleasure of the event.

Bathing, dancing, bowling and general merry-making was freely engaged in by the jolly crowd and a tired, but happy band came back to the city after one of the pleasantest and most enjoyable annual excursions in many a year.

Gun Club Shoot.

The following is the official score of the Gun Club Shoot:

Penny, 21; Littig, 22; Harris, 22; Boushee, 23; Hergenrother, 24; Pickard, 18; Capps, 10; Saunders, 15; Christian, 13; Schnibben, 15.

The gold medal offered by Mr. Hans A. Kine for the best score out of a possible 25 was won by Mr. A. A. Hergenrother, with a score of 24.

Naval Reserves' Cruise.

The good steamer Compton, commanded by Capt. W. A. Sanders, with the Naval Reserves on board arrived at Morehead City at 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The trip around was a safe and enjoyable one and the boys had a fine time. All are well, and our sailor lads have buckled down to duty. They cruise around Morehead for ten days and while doing sea duty it goes without saying that they will take in all that is coming their way in the shape of a good time.

THAW WOMEN MEET AND KISS

No Lunacy Commission Will Be Held to Examine Slayer of Stanfod White—His Mother Employs Judge Olcott.

New York, July 26.—An effectionate scene in which Mrs. Wm. Shaw, her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Linewald, and Harry K. Thaw's wife participated, took place at the Tombs prison today while the three women were paying a visit to Harry K. Thaw. Thaw's wife had been with him half an hour when his mother and sister arrived. The young wife and the prisoner's mother kissed each other several times. On leaving the Tombs the three women drove to the office of Clifford W. Hartridge, who has charge of Thaw's defense. Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw said: "Everything is all right now."

It was reiterated to-night that the contemplated effort to secure a lunacy commission to adjudge Thaw insane has been dropped even by counsel retained by Mrs. Wm. Thaw. It is understood that the council, consisting of Ex-Judge William M. K. Olcott and Terence J. McManns have decided that such a motion would meet with ultimate defeat and therefore it has been eliminated.

Thaw will be allowed to go to trial as he desires. The emotional insanity plea will be that offered by clifford W. Hartridge, the personal counsel of Harry K. Thaw. Ex-Judge Olcott, it is understood, is retained by Mrs. Wm. Thaw, the mother of the prisoner, to look out for young Thaw's innterests—not in the way of any action on his part but to aid in every bit of evidence he can secure.

A Tragic Finish.

A watchman's neglect permitted a leak in the great Northern Sea dyke, which a child's finger could have stopped or become a ruinous break, divastating an entire province of Holland. In like manner Kenneth McIver of Vanceboro, Me., permitted a little cold to go unnoticed until a tragic finish was only averted by Dr. King's New Discovery. He whites: "Three doctors gave me up to die with lung inflamation, caused by a neglected cold; but Dr. King's New Discovery saved my life. Guaranteed best cough and cold cure, at all druggists. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

DIVORCED PAIR AT ALTAR AGAIN

After Three Years Man Hears Where Former Wife Is and Goes to Her On Special Train.

New Martinsville, July 25.—Learning that his former wife, Miss Margaret Brown, from whom he was divorced three years ago, was in this city, Clarence Burleigh, Jr., a Pittsburg attorney and son of the attorney for the Philadelphia Company, chartered a special train at Wheeling Friday night, came to this city, effected a reconciliation and was married to his former wife in the parlor of the Elk Hotel yesterday. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. Healy Maloney, of the Protestant Episcopal church.

Burleigh walked into the depot at Wheeling, accompanied by a private detective, and asked if he could get a special train to this city. He was told that it would cost him $114.

"Have it ready in twenty minutes," he said.

Alighting from the train here he went to the Brast Hotel. Early in the morning Miss Brown and Mr. Burleigh went to the office of County Clerk I. D. Morgan and got a marriage license. They requested the clerk not to put it on record for sixty days. Returning to the hotel they found the Episcopal minister in waiting, and they were immediately married, the hotel proprietor acting as best man for Mr. Burleigh.

Mrs. Burleigh, owing to a family difference, it is alleged, secured a divorce in this State. One son was born to them.

Mrs. Burleigh is a daughter of the manager of the Carter Iron Company's works at Paden City, near here.

RAILROADS FIGHT EACH OTHER.

Inter-State Commerce Commission Re-Opens Case Against Union Pacific.

Washington, D. C., July 25.—An order was made to-day by the Inter-State Commerce Commission, on petition of the Great Western Railway Company, the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railway Company and Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway Company, for a rehearing in the matter of allowances to elevators by the Union Pacific Railway Company.

The petitioners allege that the Union Pacific entered into a contract with Peavey & Co., under which the latter company erected grain elevators at Council Bluffs, Ia., and Kansas City, for the transfer of grain for the public from incoming cars of the Union Pacific to out-going cars of the connecting lines at these terminal points of the Union Pacific and for this service the Union Pacific agreed to pay Peavey & Co. 1¼ cents per cwt. The complaining railroads allege that the facts are "the elevators of Peavey & Co., were not built for such purposes and never have, to any considerable extent, if at all, thus transferred grain for the Peavey & Co."

Concerning the case, Chairman Knapp, of the Inter-State Commerce Commission, pointed out that, in the opinion of the railroad petitioners, the arrangement between the Union Pacific and Peavey & Co., gave the latter, grain buyers and handlers, a distinct advantage over their competitors located on other lines of railroad, inasmuch as they received, according to the petitioners, pay for handling their own grain. This, it is maintained, amounts to a rebate.

No time yet has been set for the hearing of the case.

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science.

It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newbro's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root; and cleans the scalp of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Mannett, in the Maryland Block, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald. In less than a month Herpicide had removed the enemies of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. MRS. STENTON IS INSANE.

Mother of Murdered Woman in New York Acts Queerly.

New York, July 25.—Application to have Mrs. Louise M. Stenton, mother of Mrs. C. D. Kinnon, who yas mysteriously murdered at the Stenton home in the Bronx some time ago, declared insane was made to Justice Blanchard in the Supreme Court today by relatives of the old lady who has thwarted all efforts of the officials to obtain an intelligent account from her of the events on the evening of her daughter's murder. Justice Blanchard directed that a writ be issued, addressed to the petitioners and other relatives to show cause on August 1, why Mrs. Stenton should not be declared incompetent. It is set forth in the petition to the court that Mrs. Stenton has lost her memory and fails to recognize any of her relatives and can not connect anything about the past history of her family. The petitioners also claim that she is a victim of kleptomania.

Doctors Wm. Mahon and Arthur H. Harrington also made affidavits in which they say that Mrs. Stenton is suffering from senile dementia and is not in a fit mental state to either take care of herself or to manage her business affairs.

BLACK HAND VIRULENCE.

Thousands of Papers Issued to Inspire Attack on Jews.

Moscow, July 25.—Tens of thousands of copies of the Virehé, a Black Hand paper, containing the most provocative articles against the Jews and revolutionists, are being distributed gratis in the streets. An article describing how a meeting of "Russian patriots received the news of the dissolution of Parliament," says the "True sons of the Fatherland fell on each others necks and wept tears of joy."

An editorial glorifies the disposal of the "revolutionary assembly of Jews and Jewish sympathizers," adding:

"The prayers of the people have at last found an echo in the heart of the Emperor. Arise orthodox Russians! Take care that the next Parliament is not an assembly of Jews and revolutionists, but a State institution willing to work in harmony with the autocratic Emperor and the fundamental law. True Russians will now understand that the only object of Parliament was the downfall of Russia. Sons of the Fatherland, rejoice in your victory, but remember that the Jewish hydra has a hundred heads and that many heads yet remain to be cut off."

The court at Paris has definitely decided that the hearing of the suit of Countess Anna DeCastellane against her husband, Count Boni, for divorce, shall be heard October 17 or October 24, if the parties are not ready on the first date mentioned. The hearing of the suits of the Count's creditors, in which they are seeking to hold the Countess liable for the obligations incurred by the Count, is fixed for the same days.

THE COTTON MARKETS.

New York, July 26.—The cotton market was moderately active to-day, and after a steady opening declined under buying after a net loss of 5 to 9 points.

The opening was steady at a decline of 1 point on August, but generally 1 to 2 points higher, the advances being due to better cables than expected, while August was affected by fear of notices to-morrow. Spot people seemed to be buying August and that position rallied a couple of points right after the opening, but there was no general support as prices soon weakened as a result of the favorable interpretation of the weather map, the fact that yesterday's rains in North Texas were not heavy enough to suggest much damage, a bearish private condition report on Texas showing an improvement for the last month of about four per cent., and predicting as large a crop as two years ago and rather better reports from the eastern belt where the weather being partly cloudy to showery was considered very favorable. Trading was quiet during the middle session after prices had eased off to about the low level of the previous day, but became quite active toward the close and several large blocks were traded in with a greater show of bull support on the theory that the declines had discounted a favorable August condition report, and that the feeling abroad was a little more optimistic as to Russian conditions. The close, however, was within a point or so of the lowest.

Receipts at the ports to-day 6,240 bales against 2,422 last week and 12,734 last year. For the week 30,000 bales against 25,047 last week and 102,031 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 3,089 bales against 3,290 last year, and at Houston 865 bales against 1,785 last year.

THE GYPSY MOTH.

How a Careless Frenchman's Experiments Led to Trouble.

On a certain ill omened day in 1869 a gentle breeze rippled through the streets of a quiet town in eastern Massachusetts. It left chimneys unharmed and hardly rippled a tree, yet if it had been a cyclone it could hardly have done more damage, for in a bare little frame tenement house on a side street stood Pandora's box full of troubles waiting to be spread broadcast over the land, and the breeze furnished the needed key. Presently the owner of the house and of Pandora's box, a Frenchman, known to his neighbors for his curious experiments in silk raising and for his absorption in the study of strange insects, was seen searching anxiously in the grass outside his window. People who saw him said that he seemed much disturbed at the failure of his quest. Well might he be, for he had just let loose one of the plagues of Egypt upon a fair and fertile land. He had lost "le zigsag," and the new world gained the gypsy moth.

Mr. Trouvelot, the silk grower of Medford, can hardly expect to have his name pleasantly remembered among his quondam townsmen and countrymen, but he should be given credit both for intelligence to foresee the consequences of his negligence and for the candor immediately to give notice of the danger to which the public was exposed. But his warning fell on deaf ears. No one realized that the pest, which is a nuisance rather than a danger in Europe, would gain such headway in a new home, and, freed from its hereditary enemies, was to devastate wherever it went. It would have been economy, if the future could have been foreseen, to appropriate $1,000,000 if need be to quarantine the whole neighborhood, to fell the trees, to raze the houses to the ground, to plow the fields under and leave that part of the town a desert. But no one rose to the emergency till it was too late.

An Innocent Accomplice.

Residents in a certain West End avenue block are surprised at the suddenly refractory disposition of the postman on that beat. Time was when he obligingly stopped and delivered letters to persons whom he met in the street. Nowadays all such requests are answered with a stubborn denial. About two weeks ago that neighborhood was thrilled with news of an elopement. Upon investigation it turned out that the match was made by means of a clandestine correspondence which was carried on with the postman's aid. The young man and woman in the case wrote the letters, but the postman handled at least half of them, and by allowing himself to be wheedled into giving them up to the young woman half a block away from her own door he prevented her family from finding out what was going on. The enraged parents are now denouncing him for complicity in the scheme, which accounts for his sudden reformation.—New York Post.

Mozart's Memory.

Mozart had a memory for music and for nothing else. On attending the papal mass at the Sistine chapel he was greatly impressed with the musical service and asked for a copy, but was told none could be given him, as the music was not allowed to go out. He went to the next service, listened attentively, went away and wrote down the whole from memory. When "Don Giovanni" was first performed there was not time to copy a part for the harpsichord, so Mozart conducted the entire opera, about three hours long, and played harpsichord accompaniments to the songs and choruses without a note of music to assist his memory.

The Word "Gentleman."

If the word is to be kept "for purposes of ceremony," let us be ceremonious on all occasions, and except where those we may be speaking of are behaving in plain opposition to the name let us hasten to Ascribe a virtue, if they have it not.

Thus if I were asked the time honored question:

When Adam delved and Eve span,
Who was then the "gentleman?"

I would reply: "Adam was the first 'gentleman' and remained so till the fall. But when he threw the blame on Eve he forfeited the title."—London Outlook.

After Two Months.

Bride—Are you sure you love me as much as ever?

Bridegroom—Perfectly.

"And you will never, never love any one else?"

"Never."

"And there isn't anything you wouldn't do to make me happy?"

"Nothing—that is, of course, nothing within the bounds of reason."

"Humph! I thought so. I can see that you are getting tired of me. You've begun to reason."

HON. W. J. BRYAN MEETS THE KING

British Sovereign Expressed Desire to Make Acquaintance of Disiinguished American.

GREETING MOST CORDIAL

Conversation Turned on Peace and King Edward Expresed Himself In Accord With Movement—Bryan Creates Enthusiasm.

London, July 26.—William J. Bryan, who was introduced by Ambassador Reid, was received in private audience by King Edward at Buckingham Palace to-day. The visit was paid at the King's special request, his Majesty having notified Mr. Reid that he desired to meet Mr. Bryan. The interview was quite informal and was marked by the pleasing cordiality which the King is accustomed to show Americans in whom he is interested. Only the King, Mr. Reid and Mr. Bryan were present. The conversation largely turned on the subject of peace and the conference of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, with the objects of which the King showed himself thoroughly in acord.

Subsequently the King received some eighty members of the Inter-Parliamentary Union in the Throne room, Congressman Richard Bartholdt, of Missouri; T. E. Burton, of Ohio; and Rockwood Hoar, of Massachusetts, representing the American group. Mr. Bryan accompanied his three compatriots at this function, which was somewhat in the nature of a love feast.

At the formal sitting of the Inter-Parliamentary Union Mr. Bryan moved a vote of thanks to King Edward, Premier Campbell-Bannerman, the Government, the House of Commons, the House of Lords, the members of the British group of the union, and Lord Weardale, for their generous hopitality, constant attention and courtesies. It was enthusiastically carried.

NO TAINTED MONEY FOR BRYAN RECEPTION.

Nebraskan Writes Committee to be Careful Not to Receive Expense Money from Questionable Sources—Will Arrive August 29th.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

New York, July 26.—The executive committee which is in charge of arrangements for a reception to be given to Wm. J. Bryan at Madison Square Garden on August 30, made public to-day a portion of a letter written by Mr. Bryan to Alexander Troup, of Newhaven, the treasurer of the committee, concerning the method of securing funds for the reception. Mr. Bryan wrote in part as follows:

"There will be some expense and the committee must see to it that no money is accepted from questionable sources; in fact, I think it would be well to announce that the expense would be borne by popular subscription, dollar subscriptions being preferable, but that larger subscriptions would be received up to $50, or more would be entered in a book and the names given to any one desiring them. Subscriptions of less than $5 would not be made known without the expressed consent of the subscriber. Say that the reception will be made as inexpensive as possible and that any surplus over the above expense of the reception will be used to print and circulate the speeches delivered at the reception. I think the publication of the subscriptions is an important thing. The Republicans have failed to pass any effective laws in regard to campaign contributions and this will be a good rebuke to them and will foreshadow the adoption of such a policy by our next campaign committee. You can say, if you like, that I asked to have this plan adopted."

The executive committee held its first meeting today. Norman B. Mack, of Buffalo, presided. Charles F. Murphy and John Fox, of New York, and David R. Francis, of Missouri, were elected members.

Alexander Troup was elected treasurer to succeed Nathan Straus, who was unable to serve.

Mr. Bryan's suggestion as to the method of securing funds for the reception was approved and a sub-committee on finances appointed.

It was announced that the railroads have agreed to give a half fare rate plus two dollars for round trip tickets to New York from all over the country.

Various names were added to the reception committee including that of Adlai E. Stevenson. On motion of Josiah Quincy, of Massachusetts, the committee from the Anti-Imperialist League of that State, was added to the reception committee.

Mr. Bryan is scheduled to arrive in port on August 29, but he will go aboard a yacht and will not land until August 30, at 4 P. M., when he will be driven up Broadway to Central Park and back to the Victoria Hotel. A series of receptions is to follow, the one at Madison Square Garden. Mr. Bryan's first out of town trip will be to New Haven.

KILLED IN SELF-DEFENSE.

Coroner's Finding in Homicide at Raleigh.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 25.

The coroner's jury to-night rendered a verdict to the effect that the negro Walter Chavis came to his death from a shot fired by Everett Spence. The other three white men were discharged. All four men claim that the negroes had thrown rocks at a wagon and were advancing on them at the time. Furthermore that the negro was stooping over to pick up a rock when a bullet from Spence's pistol took effect. The wound in the negro's head confirms this contention.

NEGRO WITNESS REFUTES WIFE

Testifies in Hartje Divorce Case That Blanche Ashly is Perjurer.

SHE RECEIVED MONEY TO LIE

Was Paid $300 by Mrs. Hartje—Blonde Woman Testifies That Coachman, Swore Falsely as to Her Meeting Hartje.

Pittsburg, Pa., July 26.—At to-day's session of the Hartje trial, counsel for Augustus Hartje called witnesses to refute the story told by Coachman Tom Madine, to the effect that while Mrs. Hartje was in Memphis Hartje met a blonde woman in Schenley Park and took her to his home in the carriage driven by Madine.,

Josephine Wright, whom Augustus Hartje had been charged with visiting at 240 Second avenue, was placed on the stand and testified that Hartje had never visited her; that she only knew him by sight, and had never spoken to him. The manner in which John M. Freeman, of counsel for Mrs. Hartje, cross-examined her, led to a report that witnesses would be placed on the stand by Mrs. Hartje to refute the Wright woman's testimony.

During the taking of the Wright woman's testimony, Alderman Festus M. King, of the South Side, was in court and assisted the District Attorney. Mr. Robb would not discuss the case. It was, however, reported that information is to be made, and that this information will be based on the Wright woman's evidence.

Ashby also swore that his wife has told him that Mrs. Hartje had declared, to her she was sorry she had not returned to live with Hartje when he asked her to go back to him.

On cross-examination, a letter which Ashby had written to Mrs. Hartje was placed in evidence. In it he told Mrs. Hartje that if "she could pay Blanche for speaking for her, Hartje could do the same."

Previous testimony on that point had been to the effect that Ashby wrote that if Mrs. Hartje could pay Blanche for "lying," Hartje could afford to pay for the truth.

One of the closing events of the trial will be to show how, and when the Madine love letters were secured.

Just after leaving the court house to-day following the adjournment of the Hartje divorce case, Mary Scott Hartje, the respondent in the case, was attacked by an unknown man on the street. Despite the crowd about the court house at the time the man made his escape, although a short chase after him was taken up. He disappeared through an alley in the vicinity of the court house. Mrs. Hartje left the building, accompanied by Mrs. Alexander W. Slocom, who has been Mrs. Hartje's constant companion throughout the hearing. The women were on the way to the office of John Freeman, Mrs. Hartje's counsel. They had gone but a few steps from the court house when a man, having the appearance of a mill worker, thrust out his arm and grabbing Mrs. Hartje dragged her across the pavement, saying: "Mary, come with me." Screaming with fright, Mrs. Hartje managed to escape from the man and found refuge in Mr. Freeman's office. In the meantime the man started to run, but soon was lost to the view of those who took up the chase. Later Mrs. Slocom pointed out a man as the assailant and he was arrested, but was released when Mrs. Hartje said he was not the man.

STRONG-HANDED REFORM AGAINST ANARCHY.

Russian Premier Declares Disorder Will Be Suppressed With Rigor—Depends on Patriotism of People and Loyalty of Army.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

St. Petersburg, July 26.—"Strong handed reforms" is laid down by M. Stolyphin as to the key-note of his administration, in an interview to-day in which the new premier expressed his confidence that this policy with the aid of the "innate patriotism of the masses" and the army, which, "in spite of all efforts is still loyal and reliable," will tide the country over until the convocation of the next Parliament. He emphasized, as did Comptroller of the Empire Schwannebach on Sunday, the belief that the outlawed Parliament was neither representative nor capable of constructive work. He spoke with special scorn on the leaders of the constitutional Democrats, not attempting to conceal his impression that the quasi-respectability of the party was but a cover for insincerity and truckling with the worst element of the revolution. They did not honestly believe in either a general expropriation of land or in complete amnesty. Their advocacy of these features was merely a campaign cry. He stated that the members of the Parliament were not arrested for signing the Virborg manifesto, because that merely would have conferred a mild and much desired martydom on them, but they would be promptly held responsible for the slightest attempt to preach to their constituents seditious doctrines, such as refusal to pay taxes or furnish recruits to the army.

At Kingston, in Williamson county, Tenn., a negress on Wednesday gave birth to six children. The children are well formed and all were alive at last accounts.

WILLIAM LEE HANGED ON LONELY ISLAND.

Sheriff of Somerset County, Md., Had to Have Secret Execution to Prevent Mob from Lynching and Burning Negroes.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Crisfield, Md., July 26.—William Lee, the colored youth, who was sentenced to death in Baltimore three weeks ago for assaulting two women on Somerset county, on June 10, last, and who had been threatened with lynching, was hanged by Sheriff Brown today on Smith's Island, in the presence of his deputies and a few witnesses. The mob that had threatened to burn Lee at the stake was completely outwitted by the Sheriff.

Lee's crime created unprecedented excitement throughout the Eastern counties of Maryland and for weeks the popular fury was such that Governor Warfield deemed it prudent to have him confined in the Baltimore city jail as a protection from mob violence. As a further precaution, though, it was necessary to carry out the sentence of the law in Somerset county, the scene of the crime, the exact place of execution was kept secret, even from those who were to accompany the sheriff as deputies and witnesses. To carry out this purpose, Sheriff Brown appeared in Baltimore yesterday afternoon late, placed his prisoner aboard a steamer of the Maryland Oyster Navy and immediately saidel from the Bay. He took with him a gallows which had been borrowed from Baltifore county and also a coffin and was prepared to hang Lee on the deck of the vessel after reaching the waters of Somerset county should there be any signs of a mob on shore.

At an early hour this morning the steamer appeared off Smith's Island, the prisoner was speedily taken ashore and the scaffold quickly erected by a carpenter, who had been brought from Baltimore for that purpose. The culprit, accompanied by his spiritual adviser was led up the scaffold, the noose was adjusted and the execution was quickly over. Lee confesesd his guilt.
